5. If for any reason the slave learns that he may be unable to respond immediately to an order from his Owner (such as a business trip which takes the slave out reasonable travelling distance from his Owner), he must immediately seek the permission of his Owner by email. IV. DURATION

In agreeing to submit to slavery, the slave is making a genuine commitment to enhance the lifestyle of his Owner, who may come to rely on the slave's services for a specific, predetermined, duration.

1. This contract will be binding from the moment that it is signed by the slave and (subject to clause IV/5) will be valid for one year from date of signing.
2. Subject to clause IV/5, on the anniversary of the signing of this contract the slave may request, in person, that the contract be terminated. This is the only day each year that the slave may request termination of the contract. If the slave does not make such a request, the contract will automatically renew for a period of one year. If the slave seeks to terminate the contract while engaged in one or more on-going projects for his Owner (such as web-design, translation, building work etc.) the contract will remain in effect until any and all outstanding work is completed to the satisfaction of the Owner. The Owner's decision in such matters is final.

If the slave is unable to attend his Owner in person when seeking to terminate the contract, he may contact Mistress by telephone. Failure to request the termination of this contract with the Owner, either in person or via telephone, on the anniversary of the signing will result in the contract renewing for 12 months. The slave shall hold blameless the Owner for any failure in communicating with Her his desire to terminate his enslavement and must accept the new one-year period of slavery.

3. If the Owner is unable or unwilling to keep the services of the slave, this contract may be either terminated by Her without notice at any time or transferred to another Mistress.
4. Upon termination of this contract and completion of any outstanding work in which the slave is involved, arrangement will be made for the removal of the chastity device and any other attachments which may have been placed on the slave during his slavery. Removal (including costs) of any physical marks incurred during slavery, such as tattoos or brands, will be wholly the responsibility of the slave.
5. If the slave attempts to break this contract (i.e. by stopping compliance with any of its terms or by refusing to accept the Mistress domination of him), the Mistress may use whatever means She deems necessary to enforce compliance, including but not limited to service notice of the destruction of the keys to the slave's chastity device or other locks/shackles attached to the slave, or humiliation of the slave by publicly naming him and/or releasing incriminating photographs of him. The slave will be liable for and make good any financial losses that the Mistress claims to have incurred by his non-compliance and the slave will forfeit his right to cancel the contract at the next renewal date, this extending his slavery by a minimum of one year.

In witness whereof, we affix our signatures the day and date first written above.
